

1                   REPORT OF THE THEOLOGICAL EXAMINING COMMITTEE
2                   TO THE FORTY-EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY
3                   OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN AMERICA
4                   June 2020

6                   I. Introduction to the Committee’s Work

8                   A. Purpose and Scope of Examinations

9                   According to our Book of Church Order, Teaching Elders should seek office “out of a 10                   sincere desire to promote the glory of God in the Gospel of his Son.” In this same spirit,
11                   the Theological Examining Committee (comprising 3 Teaching Elders, 3 Ruling Elders, 12                   and 2 alternates) serves the General Assembly by ensuring that candidates for positions
13                   of influence in our denomination are both gifted for and committed to promoting the 14                   glory of God by promoting the biblical gospel of Jesus Christ. Our task according to 15                   The Book of Church Order, chapter 4, section 1.14, is to examine “all first and second 16                   level administrative officers of committees, boards, and agencies, and those acting
17                   temporarily in these positions who are being recommended for first time employment.”
18

19                   B. Nature of Examinations

20                   The examinations we administer resemble those for the ordination of Teaching Elders
21                   in the PCA, covering the following areas: Christian experience, theology, the 22                   sacraments, church government and the BCO, Bible content, church history, and the 23                   history of the PCA. Our standard procedure is to administer a written examination
24                   covering theological views, followed by an intensive oral examination, which entails
25                   not only views but knowledge in these areas.
26

27                   II. Summary of the Committee’s Work

29                   In the past year, the committee has conducted one examination.

31                   On February 25, 2020, the committee examined TE Ed Dunnington, nominee for President,
32                   PCA Retirement & Benefits, Inc (RBI). All areas of TE Dunnington’s exam were sustained
33                   and unanimously approved by the committee.
34

35                   The committee reviewed the nominee’s written statements of personal differences with the 36                   Westminster Standards, included below, and, per RAO 8-3 and 16.3.e.5, deemed their 37                   differences to be more than semantic, but “not out of accord with any fundamental of our 38                   system of doctrine” (BCO 21-4).
39

40                   LC #109 — “I am unclear what it looks like to, “make any representation of 41                   God...inwardly in our mind,” What does that look like?”
42

43                   LC #117 — “I am unclear what it looks like to sanctify the day, “by a holy 44                   resting all the day, not only from such works as are at all times sinful, but even 45                   from such worldly employments and recreations as are on other days unlawful.”
46

47                   Respectfully submitted,
48                   RE Richard Leino, Chairman

RE Hans Madueme, Secretary