

47TH PCA GENERAL ASSEMBLY
DALLAS, TEXAS | JUNE 25-28, 2019

PRESS ON FOR GOD'S GLORY

The background of the entire page is a photograph of the Dallas skyline, featuring prominent skyscrapers like the Bank of America Plaza. The image is heavily stylized with a blue color palette. Overlaid on the skyline are several large, semi-transparent blue arrows pointing in various directions, creating a sense of movement and forward progress. The text "PRESS ON FOR GOD'S GLORY" is centered in the lower half of the image in a large, white, bold, sans-serif font.

PREACHING SACRAMENTS DISCIPLINE

Evaluating a church or choosing a good one can be a difficult task. So many styles, so many types, so many different experiences and focuses. We quickly see the activities of a church, and those can be important; but how much do they reveal about the church's essential nature? Are there signs that a church is actually a good church, both on the surface and deep down?

Certain marks have been given in Scripture to distinguish the true, visible church from false ones. In particular, there are three essential identification marks, which we will explore in this book.

Whether you are looking for a church, seeking to understand your own church experience better, or wanting to guide others in deepening the church's true identity, this book is for you.

Barry York offers an experienced voice of practical application of Scripture. God has used him as a pastor, a disciple maker, and a church planter. He's not offering just theory about church. Barry gives the real deal.

WELCOME FROM THE STATED CLERK

Thank you for registering to attend the 2019 General Assembly in Dallas! Your participation in our annual Assembly demonstrates your willingness to serve our Lord not only in your particular church or area of service, but in the PCA at large.

As we come together in person from across the PCA to conduct the Lord's business, be sure to use this opportunity to hear and see what God is doing in the lives and ministries of your brothers and sisters in Christ. I pray that through our corporate worship, practical seminars, and personal interactions, you will be encouraged and better equipped to Press On for God's Glory as you return to the specific work God has entrusted to you.

Please take a few moments to look over this information book to see how it can help you as you make arrangements for our meeting in June. You'll find details on housing and transportation, maps, and the General Assembly schedule.

You will also find here a description of the excellent programs and daily activities the Host Committee has planned for those of you who are bringing family members. Please share this with your wife and children! See the family schedule, information, and registration forms.

Remember that we will again be following the shortened schedule introduced last year. This will affect your travel plans as well as your participation in the Assembly business.

Please keep abreast of General Assembly information at www.pcaac.org and in articles on upcoming issues at byfaithonline.com.

Dr. L. Roy Taylor
Stated Clerk of the General Assembly

CONNECTING THE PCA SERVING TOGETHER

We build the infrastructure for a healthy, growing, and ministering church. Our work is essential for a strong and connected PCA. Visit us at pcaac.org.

WELCOME FROM HOST COMMITTEE

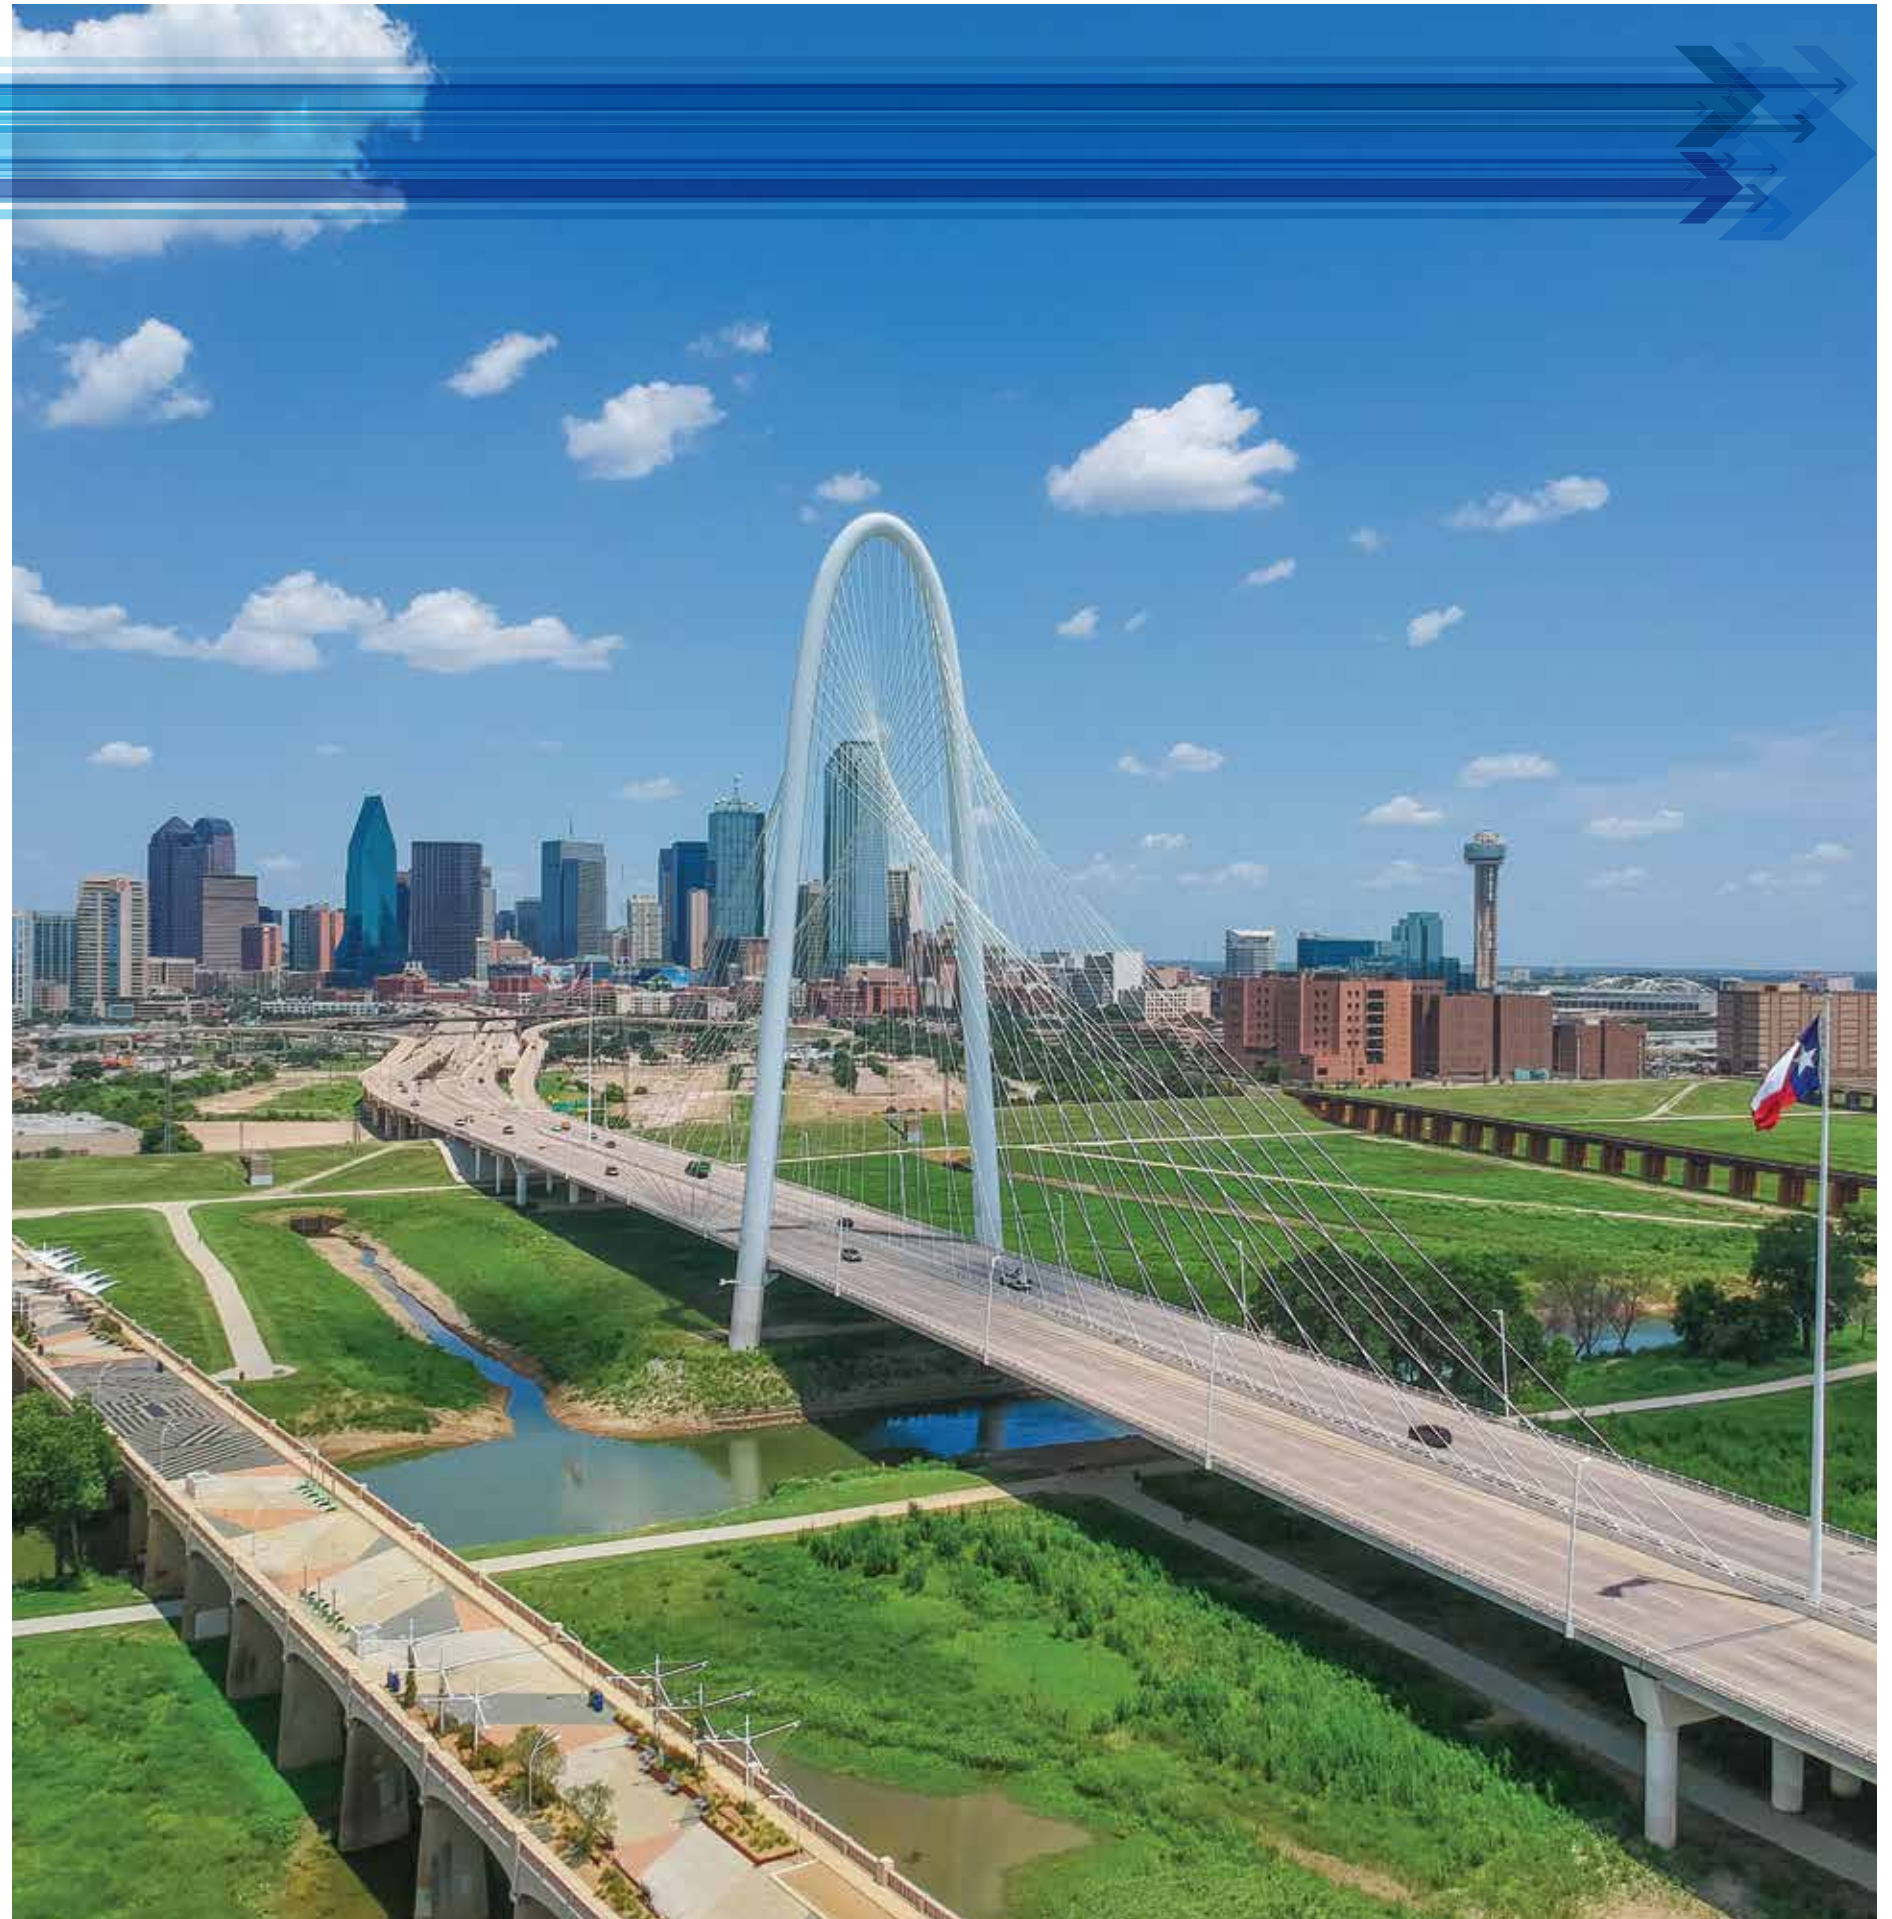

On behalf of the North Texas Presbytery and the 47th General Assembly Host Committee, welcome to Big D and the great state of Texas! The Host Committee has been hard at work planning activities and events for our guests that we hope will encourage, and further equip you to model our theme to Press On for God's Glory.

In addition to the traditional activities, we have planned outreach and service opportunities including a visit to For The Nations Refugee Outreach, a national MNA missional partnership in Dallas working with refugees from Africa, Asia and the Middle East.

In keeping with our theme, our hope is that the Assembly will remind each of us to keep our focus on our primary calling in the midst of the distractions and anxiety prevalent in our polarized society. And we long to honor our Risen Savior as we continue to pass the baton from our denominational founding fathers to the next generation of leaders. We turn to a wonderful verse found in II Corinthians 2:14: "But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us in triumphal procession, and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of Him everywhere." Our prayer is that when you return home, you will have been nourished with a sincere joy and a renewed vigor to press on so that His kingdom might be extended and His name glorified.

On behalf of the 47th General Assembly Host Committee we look forward to giving you a big Texas welcome.

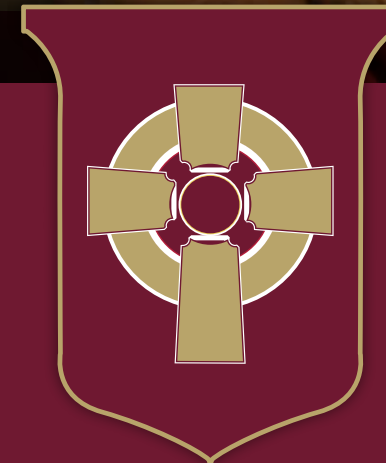

Rick Owens
Host Committee Chairman

Are your members answering the call?

If your church has committed to the 1% challenge, you may have members who are ready to learn more. We have resources to guide next steps toward serving in missions:

- Training seminars around the U.S.
- Vision trips—a chance to see firsthand what God is doing
- Short-term opportunities—serve one week, one month, or longer

We can help them see the need, recognize how they can serve, and perhaps confirm God's personal calling to global missions. Go to mtw.org/nextsteps for resources.

What's the 1% Challenge?

We're challenging churches to commit an additional 1% of their members to missions by 2026. Will you join the movement?

IN ALL THINGS CHRIST PREEMINENT

“A masterpiece! I am not aware of a more thorough treatment of the Bible’s teaching about the heart, the wellspring of life. This book is an invaluable resource both for people who are carried away by sexual passions and for the counselors who endeavor to help them.”

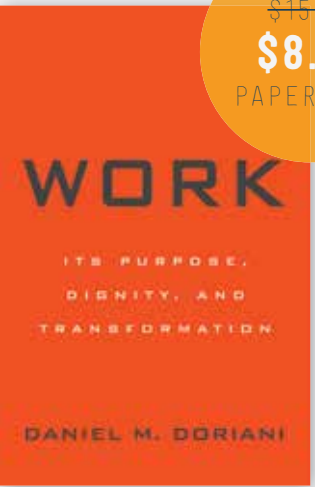

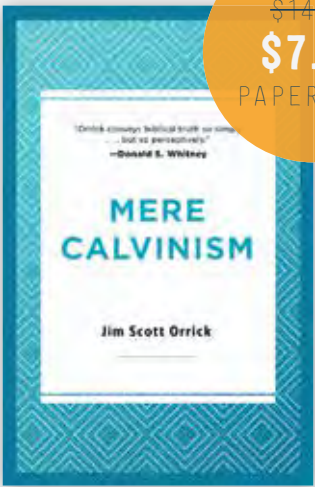

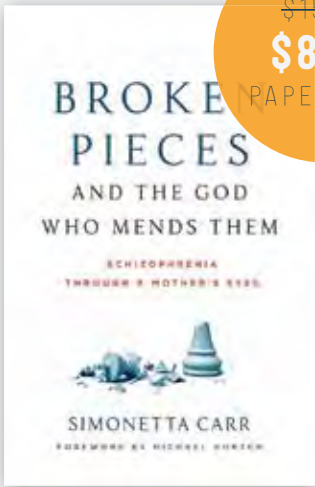

—TEDD TRIPP, Author; Counselor; Conference Speaker

“John speaks with great wisdom and unpacks Scripture in a beautifully relevant way. I commend this excellent book to all those who struggle with stubborn sexual sins.”

—AMY BAKER, Instructor and Counselor, Faith Biblical Counseling Ministry

“John Street goes beyond ‘stop it’ to address the sometimes hidden or surprising inward motivations that lead to unrighteous expressions of passion. . . . He also offers practical wisdom for counselors. . . . An important resource that will help many to be set free.”

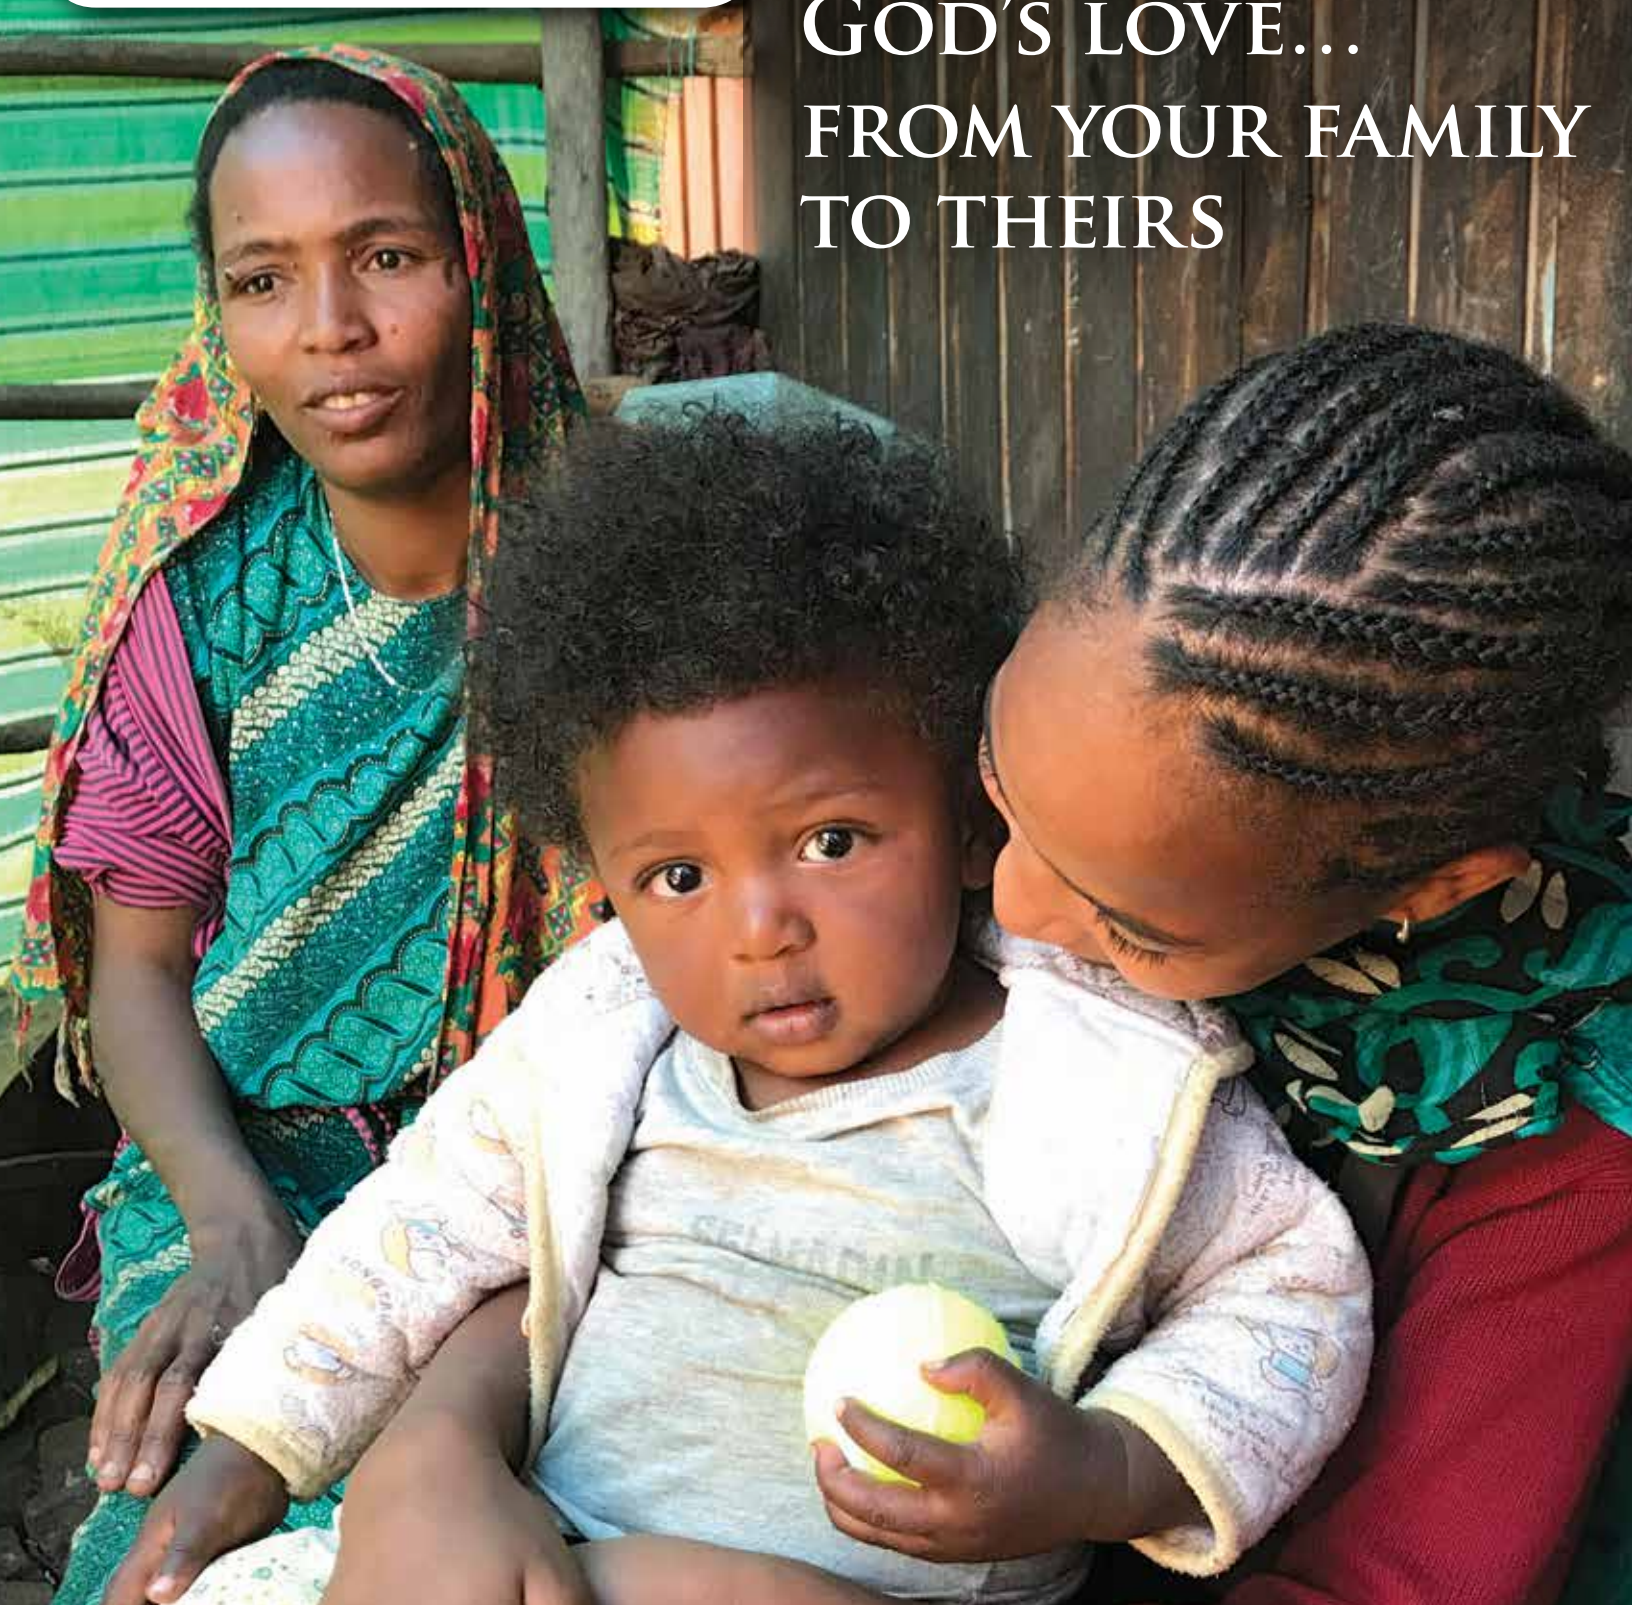

—JIM NEWHEISER, Associate Professor of Practical Theology, Reformed Theological Seminary, Charlotte

WELCOME TO WOMEN & FAMILIES

WHERE ARE YOU READY TO GO NEXT?

In years past, I have arrived at General Assembly a little tired and in need of encouragement. I sigh because my heart is willing but my flesh is weak. I long to serve alongside my husband and for us to stay faithful to the finish, but how?

One of the highlights for me at General Assembly is to reconnect with many of the founding fathers and mothers of our denomination. Over the years I have observed their long obedience in the same direction and I am convicted by their faithfulness. I wonder, did they ever want to give up or quit ministry? How have they endured and forged ahead? When I truly consider it, I think they have sought to live out Paul’s words. They have pressed on! To press on means to intensely endeavor. It requires a daily Spirit-enabled intentionality. They keep their eyes on the prize. You see, the goal and the prize of their life is the same—Christ-likeness.

So, do you need a fresh infusion of His love? Are you weary in well doing and seeking to serve others from your own resources and strength? Our prayer for this General Assembly is that you be refreshed and encouraged. The women’s events, tours, luncheon, and hospitality suite are designed to help you quickly and intentionally connect with each other. Reunite with good friends and make many new ones. Jump in Tuesday at our welcome party on the Croquet Lawn followed by a time of prayer in the Women’s Hospitality Suite. Take advantage of the seminars to be equipped and strengthened Wednesday morning and then connect at our Women’s Fellowship that afternoon in the Hospitality Suite (maybe win a door prize!). Join us for lunch Thursday and be blessed by the music and story of Sandra McCracken. And don’t forget to hop on the bus and take a tour or two and see what Texas has to offer! There is also free time to roam the city or find a quieter spot for fellowship and rest.

We are best equipped to press on for God’s glory when we are fully refreshed and resting in Him! Refocus your attention on the worthy goal and prize of becoming more conformed to the image of God’s dear Son, Jesus Christ.

IS WHAT YOU ARE DOING MAKING MATURE BELIEVERS?

Pastors continue to report that primarily using curriculum to transfer knowledge is not working to develop leaders.

Life on Life follows Jesus' model for developing leaders and bringing about true spiritual formation.

Life on Life strives to bring discipleship back to the local church. We believe the process of growth and transformation takes place in the context of relationship.

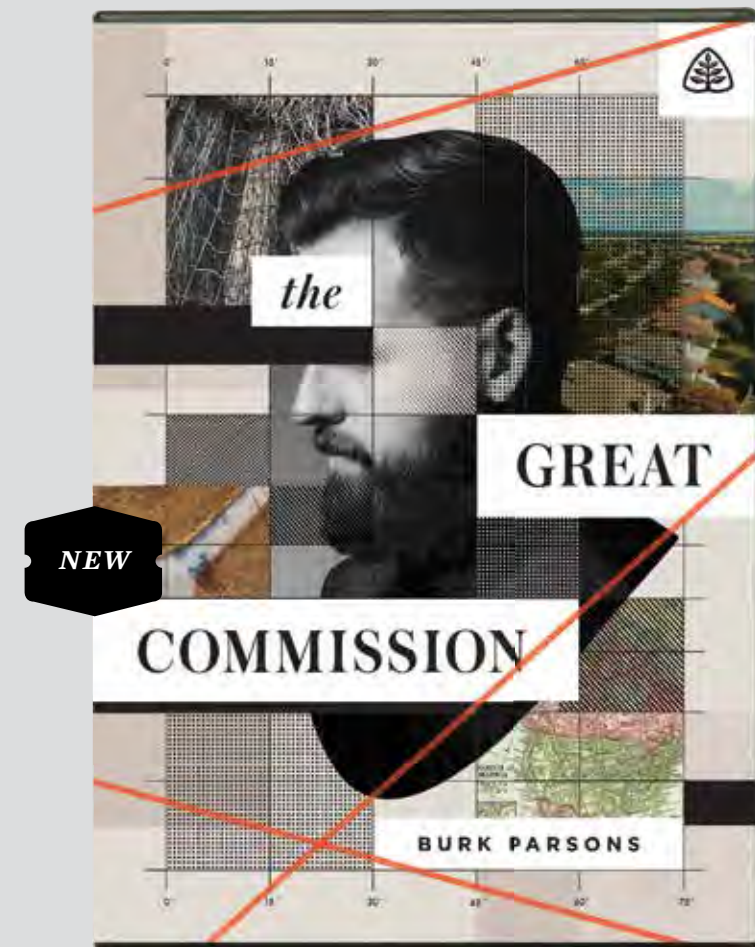

Pastors and leaders can consistently develop mature and equipped followers of Christ through life-on-life missional discipleship.

THE MISSION OF GOD

Our Lord Jesus Christ gave His people the Great Commission to make disciples of all nations. This is a significant task, yet it is one that the Holy Spirit enables us to accomplish as we rest in the authority of Christ over all things. In this video teaching series, Dr. Burk Parsons walks us through every phrase of the Great Commission, carefully examining how Christ calls us to fulfill the Great Commission in our homes, our churches, our communities, and to the ends of the earth.

“At RBC, we’re challenged by every class, but we enjoy the rigor because through it we grow closer to Christ. The time and energy we invest in school returns matchless value. We learn how to respond to the grace of God with love for Him and His people. What could be more valuable?”

THE CHURCH NEEDS LEADERS

We train leaders for the church.

As the seminary of the Presbyterian Church in America, we train, place and sustain pastors and ministry leaders to fulfill their calling.

94% of our graduates are placed in ministry.
92% pass all ordination exams on their first try.
