

1 OVERTURE 90 from the Session of Grace Presbyterian Church (to OC)
2 “Append Reformed Christian Politics to AIC Report on Christian Nationalism”
3

4 Whereas, the Committee on Christian Nationalism’s Report will be commended by the 5 General Assembly; and
6

7 Whereas, the Committee on Christian Nationalism’s Report will not have constitutionally 8 binding authority; and
9

10 Whereas, the Committee on Christian Nationalism’s work is eagerly anticipated by all 11 corners of the Presbyterian Church in America; and 12

13 Whereas, the times in which we live and the universal interest in political theology, both 14 inside and outside the communion of the Presbyterian Church in America requires of us the 15 best and widest breadth of confessionally Reformed scholarship to be commended to our 16 churches; and
17

18 Whereas, scholar and author, Stephen Wolfe, and TEs Zach Garris and Sean McGowan have 19 created an additional Report on Reformed Christian Politics that is both confessionally
20 Reformed and versed in our own Reformed tradition of political theology; and 21

22 Whereas, the younger generation of church members and officers have ready access to the 23 works of the Reformed tradition and are in many cases very well read in it; and 24

25 Whereas, this younger generation is the incubator of an expectation that the church’s officers
26 and leading scholars interact thoughtfully with the sources and authors of our tradition; and 27

28 Whereas, the Reformed Christian Politics Study Report represents an honest, sober, and 29 confessionally faithful interaction with that tradition;
30

31 Therefore, be it resolved, that the 53rd General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in 32 America supplement the Committee on Christian Nationalism’s Report with the Reformed
33 Christian Politics Study Report as an appendix, commending it as pious advice.
